TWO-SENTENCE STUDIO

Host guide | a paper conversation game for pairs and small groups

SET UP

Design target: 2-12 adults. For a larger group, form pairs; an odd person can join a trio. Print one Prompt Sheet per pair/trio, or share one sheet and read prompts aloud. Pens and blank scrap paper are optional. No cutting, phone, alcohol or special props are needed.

PLAY ONE SCENE

Choose any prompt on page 2. Person A invents one sentence describing the place. Person B adds one sentence answering the question on the card. In a trio, Person C invents a short title. In a pair, agree a title together. There are no correct answers.

SWITCH AND REPEAT

After a scene, reverse who starts. For a group, invite people to choose a different partner before the next scene, if they want to. Seated play works too. Try up to three scenes; end sooner or continue only if everyone wants to. No timer or scoring is required.

MAKE SPACE FOR EVERYONE

Anyone may pass a prompt, watch, join the next scene or leave at any point. Ask before sharing someone else's story with the room. Keep scenes fictional; do not use guests' private experiences. A host can read the prompts for anyone who prefers that.

A QUICK EXAMPLE

Prompt: The Cloud Cafe. A: "The tables drift past the window whenever someone laughs." B: "The house rule is to tie your teacup to its chair." Title: "Tea with a Safety Rope."

PLEASE TEST, NOT REVIEW

If you voluntarily try this sample, useful feedback is: group size, setup confusion, any prompt you skipped, approximate time spent, and one change you would make. No names, photos, public ratings or purchase are requested.

This prototype has not been tested with a human group. Group size, enjoyment and playtime remain unverified. PDF layout checks do not establish those outcomes.

TWO-SENTENCE STUDIO

Prompt Sheet | read any card; no cutting required

01 THE CLOUD CAFE

A cafe floating on a cloud. What is its one house rule?

A invents a sentence. B answers with a sentence. Give the scene a title.

02 THE POCKET PARK

A park fits inside a coat pocket. What belongs at its entrance?

A invents a sentence. B answers with a sentence. Give the scene a title.

03 THE MIDNIGHT LIBRARY

A library opens only at midnight. What is its most unexpected shelf?

A invents a sentence. B answers with a sentence. Give the scene a title.

04 THE RAINY-DAY TRAIN

A train has no destination on its timetable. What does the conductor announce?

A invents a sentence. B answers with a sentence. Give the scene a title.

05 THE PLANT HOTEL

Houseplants take a holiday here. What is the special welcome gift?

A invents a sentence. B answers with a sentence. Give the scene a title.

06 THE SOCK MUSEUM

Every exhibit is a single lost sock. What is the title of the star exhibit?

A invents a sentence. B answers with a sentence. Give the scene a title.